

EdReNe – Educational Repositories Network

EdReNe – 10th Strategic Seminar

November 6th and 7th 2013, Brussels, Belgium

The 10th EdReNe Seminar was hosted by the European Schoolnet at its offices in Brussels.

Headlines of the seminar

- Opening Up Education / Open Educational Resources
- Open data in transforming education
- Europeana Creative
- The future of educational standards
- Learning resources for Special Educational Needs students
- The iTEC project – results and resources
- News from members

See the minutes for references to presentations.

Minutes

November 6, 2013
Opening Up Education (OUE)	Featured speaker: Ricardo Ferreira, European Commission- DG Education and Culture
Panel discussion of OUE	Karin Whooley (PDST, Ireland), Leo Højsholt-Poulsen (UNI•C, Denmark), Fernando Rui Campos (DGE, Portugal), Christian Gertsch (Swiss Agency for ICT in Education), Peter Karlberg (Skolverket, Sweden) and Joke van der Leeuw-Roord (EUROCLIO - European Association of History Educators, Netherlands)
Future Classroom Lab (FCL) Practitioners Demonstration (Results of group votes on OUE and Open Linked Data)	FCL activities will focus on potential of open data to transform education (depending on number of attendees we will have to divide the activities into two groups)
Open Data in Transforming Education
Scoilnet Maps – Repurposing Tools and Data from the Public Sector for Schools	Karin Whooley (PDST, Ireland)
Open Linked Data - the raw material of tomorrow's digital learning resources	Fredrik Paulsson (Umeå universitet, Sweden)
'Curriculum in the cloud' experiment using Linked (Open) Data techniques for Economics exams	Henk Nijstad (Kennisset, Netherlands)
Europeana Creative
Engaging with cultural heritage through large-scale	Breandán Knowlton (Europeana Foundation,

open data	Netherlands)
Gaming as one of the approaches for Natural History education re-using digitized collections Memory game demo Adventure game demo (zip file)	Jiri Frank, (National Museum in Prague)
Innovative re-use of digitized cultural heritage for history education across Europe Presentation part 1 Presentation part 2	Steven Stegers (EUROCLIO, Netherlands)
News from the Membership (Part 1)
Scoilnet.ie – The Move from Referratory to Repository	Karin Whooley (PDST, Ireland)
News from Portugal : Platforms, apps, and teachers as resource creators	Fernando Rui Campos (DGE, Portugal)
News from KlasCement : Now a part of MoE; New design for KlasCement.net: the reason(s) behind it; NEW: informative and 'interactive' overview on metadata used in KlasCement	Pascal Craeye (KlasCement, Belgium)
Educational Discovery spaces and Pathway Authoring tools : Educational services on top of open educational resources	Madalina Ungur (AgroKnow, Greece)
Automatic Metadata translation tools for repository managers	Vassilis Protonotarios (University of Alcalá, Spain)
November 7, 2013
ICT for Information Accessibility in Learning (ICT4IAL) Providing information on and for learning so it is accessible is crucial to enabling equity in learning. The ICT4IAL project network's objective is to support accessible information provision within organisations through the development, testing and evaluation of guidelines that build upon already existing work in the field.	Featured Speaker: Marcella Turner-Cmuchal, European Agency for Development in Special Needs Education
Special Educational Needs Network (SENNET's survey of European SEN resources)	Leo Højsholt-Poulsen (UNI•C), Roger Blamire (EUN) and Elena Shulman (EUN)
Future of Standards
Defining a standard JSON-based exchange format for learning metadata	Manon Haartsen-Geven (Kennisnet, Netherlands)
Enhancing the learning content through the aggregation of social and usage data	Frans Van Assche (Ariadne, Belgium) Nikos Manolis (AgroKnow, Greece)
Swedish standardization on theme learning platforms and digital learning resources	Peter Karlberg, (Skolverket, Sweden)
News from the Membership (Part 2)
An update on iTEC	Will Ellis (EUN, Belgium)

News on the development and population of the Swiss Digital School Library (DSB)	Christian Gertsch (Swiss Agency for ICT in Education)
An update of our standardization network EduStandaard – public-private cooperation covering all domains of education (also administrative domain)	Henk Nijstad (Kennisset, Netherlands)
Bringing content from content providers via LTI into e-learning platforms	Astrid Leeb (Education Group, Austria)
What's up in the Danish IT for schools initiative on digital learning resources ? A brief news report from the Danish educational repository.	Leo Højsholt-Poulsen (UNI•C, Denmark)
Concluding Remarks and Next Steps Decision: Next seminar in 2014 at AgroKnow in Greece	Members