

AGENDA - EDRENE 8TH STRATEGIC SEMINAR

May 7th – May 8th 2012, Lisbon, Portugal

Arranged by the Educational Repositories Network in collaboration with eQNet - Quality Network for a European Learning Resource Exchange.

Hosted by Direção-Geral da Educação (DGE), Portuguese Ministry of Education and Science

Espaço Noesis
Avenida 24 de Julho, 140
1399-025 Lisboa
PORTUGAL

Monday, May 7th

Program	Speakers
Registration
Welcome	Pedro Cunha, Deputy Director, DGE
Opening Keynote Digital learning resources: some reflections on practice	José Luís Ramos, University of Évora
Two Portuguese subject-based repositories: A Casa das Ciências (The House of Science)	José Ferreira Gomes, University of Oporto
Ciberescola da língua portuguesa (Portuguese Language Cyberschool)	Ana Martins, Ciberescola
A student-based collaborative learning platform: Grabmark, Next Learning Generation	Pedro Neves, Alexandre Sousa, Dinis Félix, André Aires Augusto
Workshop 1: Engaging users and producers: old and new strategies, strategies that work EdReNe report Bringing the buzzing teacher room online Managing and developing educational repositories in a time of financial constraints Sharing ideas and thoughts on what can be done with little money to actually make repositories more "appetizing" for their users, to make regular visits beneficial, encouraging their resources, etc. Introduction Engaging Users	Leo Højsholt-Poulsen, UNI-C
Videoconference: ISO Metadata for Learning Resources	Christian M. Stracke,

	University of Duisburg-Essen
Quality criteria and “travel well” resources eQNet Travel Well Criteria Experience and results in applying Travel Well Criteria to evaluate the Learning Resource Exchange for Schools and repositories at the national level. Portuguese Contribution and results eQnet - Austria eQNet Implementation Experience in Lithuania Digital Learning Resources- experience from the Czech Republic Quality criteria used in eQNet	Elena Shulman (EUN) Fernando Rui Campos (DGE) Astrid Leeb (BM:UKK) Eugenijus Kurilovas (ITC) Barbora Grečnerová/Daniel Tochacek (DZS) Lisbeth Gregersen (IKT Senteret)
Workshop 2: Standards and Rights issues: drivers and challenges EdReNe reports Are current standardization bodies in sync with actual user needs? Copyright legislation is not in tune with educators’ expectations	Peter Karlberg, Skolverket
EdReNe Board Meeting	EdReNe Board

Tuesday, May 8th

Program	Speaker
Mixing open/own learning objects into the publishers’ textbooks WILD: Curriculum as a Cloud Service - linking Digital Learning Resources to the Curriculum using Semantic Web Technology OnderwijsBegrippenKader (OBK) –curriculum in the Dutch clouds Curriculum as backbone for the selection of learning materials Mixing open open learning material with ‘the Publisher’s books’ Mixing Educational Content: Publisher’s textboks, teachers materials, open content	Fredrik Paulsson, UMU Henk Nijstad, Kennisnet Allard Strijker, SLO Henk Nijstad, Kennisnet Leonie Verhoeff
News from members and participants The new Danish national strategy of substantial support to schools’ purchase of digital learning resources, supplemented by more effective distribution channels A Survey of Digital Learning Resources in Norway Quality Criteria for Digital Learning resources Digital learning resources and digital learning platforms: a project coordinated by the Swedish Standards Institute Bibliothèque scolaire numérique	Leo Højsholt-Poulsen, UNI-C Ola Berge, IKT Senteret Peter Karlberg and Christina Szekely, Skolverket Gideon Urbach, Educa.ch

Swiss Digital School Library
Standardising the logistical chain for (digital) learning materials Standardising the exchange of learning results	Leonie Verhoeff & Henk Nijstad, Kennisnet
Closing	José Vitor Pedroso, DGE